Footnotes:

- <sup>1/</sup> The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- <sup>2/</sup> File this report if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose state officeholders during the corresponding period.
- <sup>3/</sup> In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2007, the committee makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

As of the date of this publication (1/07), the 2006 Addendum to FPPC Campaign Information Manuals C and E contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- Contribution limits are in effect for state candidates and certain state committees. Refer to the contribution limits chart on the FPPC website. Contact local jurisdictions for information on local restrictions, if any.
- Local elections in 2007: Late independent expenditure or late contribution reports are required if independent expenditures or contributions totaling $1,000 or more are made during the 16-day period prior to an election. Consult the filing schedule for the election.
- State elections in 2007: If a state election is held in 2007, a filing schedule for that election will be posted on the FPPC website. Additional reports may be required.
